Nondiscrimination in Health Programs and Activities

St. Croix Regional Medical Center complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. St. Croix Regional Medical Center does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

St. Croix Regional Medical Center:

Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)

Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

If you need these services, please let St. Croix Regional Medical Center know of your need for an interpreter so that one may be arranged ahead of time, if possible, or advise the medical center that you have your own interpreter. You may also contact the Civil Rights 1557 Coordinator at 715.483.0247.

If you believe that St. Croix Regional Medical Center has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, you may file a grievance with:
